

Social Determinants of Infant Mortality Housing Subcommittee
Meeting #2: September 18, 2017
10:00 – 11:00

AGENDA

Objectives

As a result of this conference call and webinar:

- Members will be prepared to review and provide feedback on the impact study for a state-funded rental assistance program to reduce infant mortality
- Members will be prepared to review and provide feedback on policy recommendations related to housing affordability for consideration by the Advisory group
- HPIO staff will be able to revise the impact study and policy recommendations to reflect input from Housing Subcommittee members

Time	Agenda item
10:00-10:05	Welcome and brief overview of work to date
10:05-10:15	Reminder of Housing Subcommittee work: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Review project deliverable and process for prioritizing policy recommendations
10:15-10:25	Introduction to impact study and graphics: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Review elements of impact study narrative• Review graphics to accompany narrative• Briefly review questions for feedback to be provided after webinar
10:25-10:35	Review evidence inventory and policy recommendations: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Review evidence inventory• Review policy recommendations• Review questions for feedback to be provided after webinar
10:35-10:45	Review process for providing feedback on impact study and policy recommendations
10:45-11:00	Questions?

Follow-up

Immediately following the meeting participants will receive an email with four draft documents: Impact study narrative, impact study graphics (pdf), evidence inventory and policy recommendations. Housing Subcommittee members should