Key elements of a comprehensive policy response to addiction

Figure 1. Key elements of a comprehensive policy response to addiction

- Health, wellbeing, equity and economic vitality

- Prevention
- Treatment
- Recovery
- Harm reduction
- Overdose reversal
- Surveillance and evaluation
- Law enforcement
- Children services
- Criminal justice reform

Across the life course, including caregiving and family support

Source: Health Policy Institute of Ohio adapted from Addiction Policy Forum (2017)