All young Ohioans live in safe and stable families and communities with positive supports for leading a long and healthy life. To ensure all Ohio’s children achieve their full health potential, historical and contemporary discrimination in all its forms, including racism and ableism, should be eliminated.

Short-term outcomes
1. Policymakers and other stakeholders understand the health and economic consequences of ACEs
2. Policymakers and other stakeholders are aware of evidence-informed and cost-effective strategies that can be implemented to prevent and mitigate the impact of ACEs

Mid-term outcome
Policymakers and other stakeholders use information to implement a comprehensive approach to prevent and mitigate the impact of ACEs in Ohio through:
- Allocation of resources to evidence-informed strategies
- Advocacy and policy change

Long-term outcome
- Improved overall child health and wellbeing
- Reduced cost burden of ACEs in Ohio
