Key elements of a comprehensive policy response to addiction

- Prevention
- Treatment
- Recovery
- Overdose reversal
- Harm reduction
- Law enforcement
- Criminal justice
- Children, youth and families
- Data and evaluation
- Community, family, individuals

Health, wellbeing, equity and economic vitality

Across the life course, including caregiving and family support

Source: Health Policy Institute of Ohio adapted from Addiction Policy Forum (2017)